

Mobilization and Deployment Readiness (MDR)

The MDR Program is designed to support active and reserve component Soldiers and their Families prior to and during periods of extended separation. Pre-planned Family assistance and support services ensure a comprehensive effort and coordinated assistance delivery system is in place prior to military operations.

The objective of MDR is to provide guidance and assistance to unit commanders, Soldiers and Family members in volunteer leadership positions and foster teamwork in Family Readiness Groups.

Students will receive resource materials and sample forms to assist them in becoming better prepared to participate and engage within the military community. They will also receive valuable insights and information, develop friendships and network with other volunteers and Family members within the community, and receive support from MDR and other ACS staff.

MDR offers much more. Please come by our office and see what we have to offer.

We also offer the following classes on request:

Coping with Separation
Gossip and Rumor Control
Reunion Training
Couple Reintegration Training
Practical Readiness
Rear Detachment Training
FRSA Training
