

I, _____, (hereinafter “user”), in consideration for being permitted entry onto United States Army owned and/or controlled lands in order to capture horses on those lands, do hereby agree to release, indemnify, and hold harmless the Joint Readiness Training Center and Fort Polk, the United States Army, and the United States Government, as well as all agents or employees of the above mentioned parties, (hereafter collectively “Agency”) from any and all liabilities or claims arising from or which occur as a result of my aforementioned activity. I further agree that I will never prosecute or in any way aid in the prosecution of any demand, claim, or suit against the Agency for any loss, damage or injury to myself or to property that may occur from my participation in the activity. I am willing to assume all risks resulting from my participation.

I understand that the contemplated activity is inherently dangerous due to the outdoor area in which the activity will occur and that the horses are animals which have not been domesticated. Also, I understand that during my participation, I could suffer injuries that range in severity from slight bruises or scrapes to serious disfigurement or death. Finally, I understand that the horses are animals which may carry a variety of diseases, it is suspected that some of the horses may carry Equine Infectious Anemia, and there is no guarantee that the horses are disease free and will not spread diseases to other animals. I have considered and understand the risks outlined above and also understand that there are other risks that are not as obvious. With full understanding of these risks, I willingly and intelligently agree to accept these risks. Further, I agree to forever release and hold harmless the parties indicated above from any responsibility for any property and/or personal injury or loss I may suffer as a result of my participation.

User agrees that user shall, at user’s own expense, protect, defend, indemnify and hold harmless Agency from and against any and all claims, demand, actions, losses, liabilities, costs and expenses (collectively “losses”) which may arise out of or be made in connection with any actual or alleged death or injury to any person or damage to property, by whomsoever suffered, resulting or claimed to result in whole or part from any actual or alleged actions of user.
