

The BN TF2 O/C team assists rotational units in training to execute METL tasks to standard; teach, coach, and mentor units by providing leadership to perform wartime duties successfully; provide feedback to Army leaders to enhance unit training; and contribute to the development of doctrine, tactics, techniques, and procedures that lead to mission success.