CID offers reward for crime information

Fort Polk, La. -- The U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command is offering a $600 reward for information leading to the identification, arrest and successful prosecution of the perpetrator(s) responsible for theft of government property and housebreaking here.

According to the preliminary investigation, an unknown person or persons gained access into Building 3717 of the Fort Polk Air Assault compound and stole numerous items of government property. The stolen property consisted of the following:

- Eiki Brand gun projector, serial # G19A1616
- Skedco brand litter with bag
- A litter with poles
- Five road guard vests
- Four VS-17 panels (orange panels used to direct aircrafts where to land)
- Two bean bag lights
- Three cone flashlights
- Six large wall-mounted pictures
- Eleven coins from plaques
- A spur from a plaque

The total aggregate value was approximately $6,000.

Anyone with information should contact the Fort Polk Military Police at (337) 531-2677, or the Fort Polk CID at (337) 531-2931 before July 31, 2004
