Fort Polk to host Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony

Fort Polk, La. --- Fort Polk's Christmas tree lighting ceremony will be held Friday, December 5th, at 5:30 p.m. on the front lawn of the Main Post Chapel, here.

Special music will be provided by 4th grade "Patriot Choir" from South Fort Polk Elementary and the Leesville High School Band.

Brig. Gen. Jason K. Kamiya commander of the Joint Readiness Training Center and Fort Polk, along with a youngster will participate in the traditional lighting of the Post Christmas Tree.

Santa Claus will make a grand entrance on a fire truck with a special military police escort. Santa will be on hand for the enjoyment of participants of all ages. Light refreshments will be served following the ceremony.

In the event of bad weather the ceremony will be moved inside the chapel.

The chapel is located at the corner of Louisiana Avenue and Radio Road. The public is welcome.
